ABC ANNOUNCES A SPECIAL PREVIEW OF "TRAVELER" THURSDAY, MAY 10, FOLLOWING AN ALL NEW "GREY'S ANATOMY"

Series Will Have its Regular Time Period Premiere Wednesday, May 30

How well do you know your friends? Would you bet your life on it? That's the question in "Traveler," an action-packed drama series that taps into 21st century paranoia with provocative themes, complex characters and pure adrenaline-fueled entertainment. Director David Nutter, who has defined many hit series including "The X-Files," "Without a Trace" and "Supernatural," along with the "Eight Below" writer David DiGilio and "American Beauty" Oscar-winning producers Dan Jinks and Bruce Cohen, combine "The Fugitive" and "Enemy of the State" into a taut thriller about innocents on the run. "Traveler" will air in a special preview, THURSDAY, MAY 10 (10:01-11:00 p.m., ET) on ABC. The series will have its regular premiere Wednesday, May 30 (10:00-11:00 p.m., ET).

In the preview, "Pilot" (also the premiere episode on May 30), Jay Burchell, Tyler Fog and Will Traveler – friends who have spent virtually every minute of the last two years living, working and partying together as grad-school students -- set off on a road trip to New York. Once there, the three enter New York's oldest art museum for an innocent prank: Jay and Tyler lace up their rollerblades inside and speed off to see who can make it out of the building first. When they're both outside, Will calls on his cell phone saying, "Sorry, I had to do this" -- and then the building blows up! Now, with Jay and Tyler's rollerblading prank on the museum's security tapes, blame for the attack focuses on them; they in turn realize that their "friend," Will, may have set them up. Unable to find him or indeed any evidence that the Will Traveler they knew even existed, Jay and Tyler flee the city and go on the run.

As the series continues, Jay and Tyler are being hunted by the FBI as domestic terrorists. The two must rely on each other to elude capture while trying desperately to prove their innocence by answering two questions -- who is Will Traveler, and why did he do this to them? Jay and Tyler search for clues both in the present and the past, and slowly unravel a conspiracy that involves friends and family members, and calls into question the very nature of American democracy.

"Traveler" stars Matthew Bomer ("Tru Calling") as Jay Burchell, Logan Marshall-Green ("The O.C.," "24") as Tyler Fog and Aaron Stanford ("X-Men: The Last Stand") as Will Traveler. The cast also includes Pascale Hutton ("Smallville") as Jay's girlfriend, Kimberly, Viola Davis ("Century City," "Solaris") as Agent Jan Marlow, Anthony Ruivivar ("Third Watch") as Agent Guillermo Borjes, Steven Culp ("Desperate Housewives") as Special Agent in Charge Fred Chambers, William Sadler ("Roswell," "The Shawshank Redemption") as Carlton Fog and Billy Mayo ("24," "Air Force One") as The Porter.

"Pilot" was written by David DiGilio and directed by David Nutter.

"Traveler" is a production of The Jinks/Cohen Company in association with Warner Bros. Television. Executive producers are Dan Jinks, Bruce Cohen and Charlie Craig. The series is broadcast in 720 Progressive (720P), ABC's selected HDTV format, with 5.1 channel surround sound and Spanish subtitles via secondary closed captioning. A TV parental guideline will be posted closer to airdate.

“EXTREME MAKEOVER: HOME EDITION” PROVIDES A NEW HOME FOR A SINGLE MOTHER AND HER FOUR KIDS WHO’VE BEEN LIVING IN THE DINING ROOM OF HER PARENTS’ HOME

“Kilgallon Family” -- Ty and the gang will build a new home for Marynoel Kilgallon and her four children, of Levittown, PA, who’ve been living in the dining room of Marynoel’s parents’ home, on “Extreme Makeover: Home Edition,” SUNDAY, MAY 6 (8:00-9:00 p.m., ET) on the ABC Television Network.

After her divorce, Marynoel Kilgallon decided to create a better environment for her four children by purchasing a house that was a “fixer upper.” As a woman working two jobs and struggling to make ends meet, that was all that she could afford. She thought that a new coat of paint and a woman’s touch could make the place a lovely home. But despite her measures to ensure that she’d bought a safe house, it began to fail on her.

While pulling up the carpet, she noticed termite damage. Then the ceiling wall began to crumble. Marynoel got a structural engineer to assess the damage, and it was determined that the house was unsafe for habitation. This left her without many choices, so Marynoel decided to move into her parents’ dining room. On top of that, she is still paying a hefty mortgage, insurance and electricity on a house she can’t live in.

The Kilgallon family has shown great resolve and courage in dealing with all this adversity. On this episode of “Extreme Makeover: Home Edition,” it’s up to Ty and the gang to create new and safe home that will provide a loving environment for Marynoel and her four boys.

While Ty and the designers, local builder McGrath Homes and hundreds of volunteers and workers are rebuilding their home, the Kilgallon family will go on vacation to Walt Disney World.

The design team for this episode of “Extreme Makeover: Home Edition” will feature team leader Ty Pennington and designers Paul DiMeo, Ed Sanders, Preston Sharp and Tracy Hutson. The series is produced by Endemol USA, a division of Endemol Holding. It’s executive-produced by Denise Cramsey. David Goldberg is the president of Endemol USA.

“Extreme Makeover: Home Edition” is broadcast with Spanish subtitles via secondary closed captioning. This program carries a TV-PG parental guideline.
